

Email 1 — Write an email from a student to their professor requesting an extension on an assignment submission deadline. The email must follow all professional email rules.

Dear Professor Sharma,

I hope you are doing well.

I am writing to respectfully request an extension for the submission of the assignment for your course. Due to unforeseen personal circumstances and overlapping academic commitments, I have been unable to complete the assignment by the given deadline.

I sincerely apologize for the inconvenience caused and assure you that I am putting in my best effort to complete the work with the required quality. I kindly request an extension of two additional days to submit the assignment.

I would be very grateful for your understanding and consideration.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Yash Khare

Email 2 — Write an email from a student to an internship coordinator at a company, expressing interest in a summer internship opportunity.

Dear Internship Coordinator,

I hope this email finds you well.

My name is Yash Khare, and I am a first-year student at VIT Bhopal University. I am writing to express my interest in any summer internship opportunities available at your company.

I am currently pursuing my studies in technology and have a strong interest in gaining practical industry experience. I am eager to learn, develop my skills, and contribute meaningfully to your team during the internship period.

I would be grateful if you could share details regarding any available internship roles and the application process.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Yash Khare
